

Elton sofa: Focused on Scandinavian heritage

A timeless silhouette, made of sustainable and high-quality materials, with elegant details by skilled craftsmen: Bolia presents the new Elton sofa series. This series includes sofas, poufs and daybeds, all characterized by a slim solid oak frame that seems to make the inviting seat above it float in the air.

Elton is the result of meticulous and thoughtful work by the Danish duo Glismand & Rüdiger. The oak wood is FSC®-certified (FSC® C165124) and the seat is available in several fabric options - all STANDARD 100 by OEKO-TEX® certified, like the two new fabrics Revi and Vilme. Revi is made from 100% recycled materials from the sea, lakes and beaches, while Vilme is a soft rustic fabric made in Italy from a blend of sustainable polyamide and natural fibers of linen, cotton and viscose. The Elton sofa features reversible back cushions and each component is interchangeable as the years progress.
