

Bolia launches its new AW22 collection today

The new AW22 collection and the latest Bolia Lookbook will be available in stores and on Bolia.com starting today. Two must-have releases, reflecting a world in constant evolution, fluid and free.

The new AW22 collection by Bolia is available today. The collection features handmade, made-to-order pieces designed to create timeless expressions that speak to the senses and invite you to touch, feel and experience. Once again this year, Bolia is inviting nature indoors while striving to create lasting, quality designs made of natural materials in a timeless and soothing aesthetic. The Veneda, Caro and Malin sofas are among the major new releases, together with the Kite chair series by Studio Nooi and the Lunaria lighting by Studio Niruk.

The new Lookbook

Each new collection represents a large-scale creative production and is therefore accompanied by a new Lookbook, which is the expression on paper of the entire Bolia creative universe. A masterpiece of creativity, it is designed to tell beautiful stories about Bolia's sustainable journey and the brand's love for craftsmanship, two values that underlie the entire new collection. With its attractive cover, the Lookbook will become a real decorative element. Its 248 pages are indeed printed on FSC® certified paper.

The new AW22 Bolia collection as well as the Lookbook are available today in all Bolia stores and on Bolia.com.
