THE LIVING ROOM: A WARM AND INVITING GATHERING

Quarter circle, half-circle, S-shape, or full circle, the modular sofa Angle by Says Who adapts to every desire. Its individual modules can be arranged in countless configurations, allowing you to create a layout tailored to your home. With changeable covers and FSC® certification, Angle combines personalisation, easy maintenance, and long-lasting comfort.

For a more classic expression, the Chleo sofa pairs an oak frame with clean lines and gentle curves, creating an atmosphere of understated grace. Its generous cushions and refined details ensure enduring comfort that integrates seamlessly into any interior setting.

The Dive sofa celebrates the meeting of Scandinavian and Italian design traditions. Its solid oak frame, tapered legs and full-grain leather band create a piece that is both refined and inviting. With its plush cushions and changeable covers, Dive is designed to accompany everyday living and to transform the home into a serene retreat.

This selection is complemented by the Piro coffee table, shown here in its marble version. Its conical column and solid stone base give it a sculptural presence. True to its nature, Piro combines functionality and beauty: it's ideal for impromptu drinks as well as warm, lingering conversations.

A RELAXED DINING EXPERIENCE

In the dining room, the eye is immediately drawn to the Mielo chair – with its sculptural lines and organic silhouette. Warm and inviting, it is designed with both comfort and aesthetics in mind. Its open, flowing form enhances any dining space while offering a pleasant seating experience for family and guests alike.

In a more classic style, the Eter chair emphasises the purity of wood and Scandinavian inspiration. Its minimal structure gives it a timeless look, while the option of padded seating provides extra comfort – ideal for long meals and lingering conversations.
