

BOLIA

AN INVITATION TO ENJOY THE OUTDOORS

For the Scandinavian design brand BOLIA, outdoor spaces are a natural extension of the art of indoor living. Shaped by the wind, warmed by the sun, and refined over time, they become places for presence and shared, meaningful moments. As warmer days approach, the ORLANDO O2 OUTDOOR, ARKE OUTDOOR, and PATIO OUTDOOR series embody this philosophy through furniture designed to last, adapt, and – above all – invite relaxation.

ORLANDO O2 OUTDOOR

As welcoming as an indoor sofa, Orlando O2 Outdoor combines understated luxury with absolute comfort and a warm, inviting expression. Its modules allow for easy adaptation – whether on a terrace, a balcony, or in a garden – supporting both quiet moments of relaxation and gatherings with friends and family.

The sections can be freely arranged, while the ottoman, featuring an optional tray, doubles as a footrest or an additional surface. Made in Europe from high-quality, durable materials, Orlando O2 Outdoor is designed to withstand changing weather and seasons. Its changeable cover allows for easy style updates, and its quick-drying cushions feature a water-draining system for lasting comfort.

ARKE OUTDOOR

With Arke Outdoor, BOLIA brings the comfort of a true living room into the heart of the garden. Its modular design, soft shapes, and generous seating create a relaxed expression that blends naturally into any outdoor space.

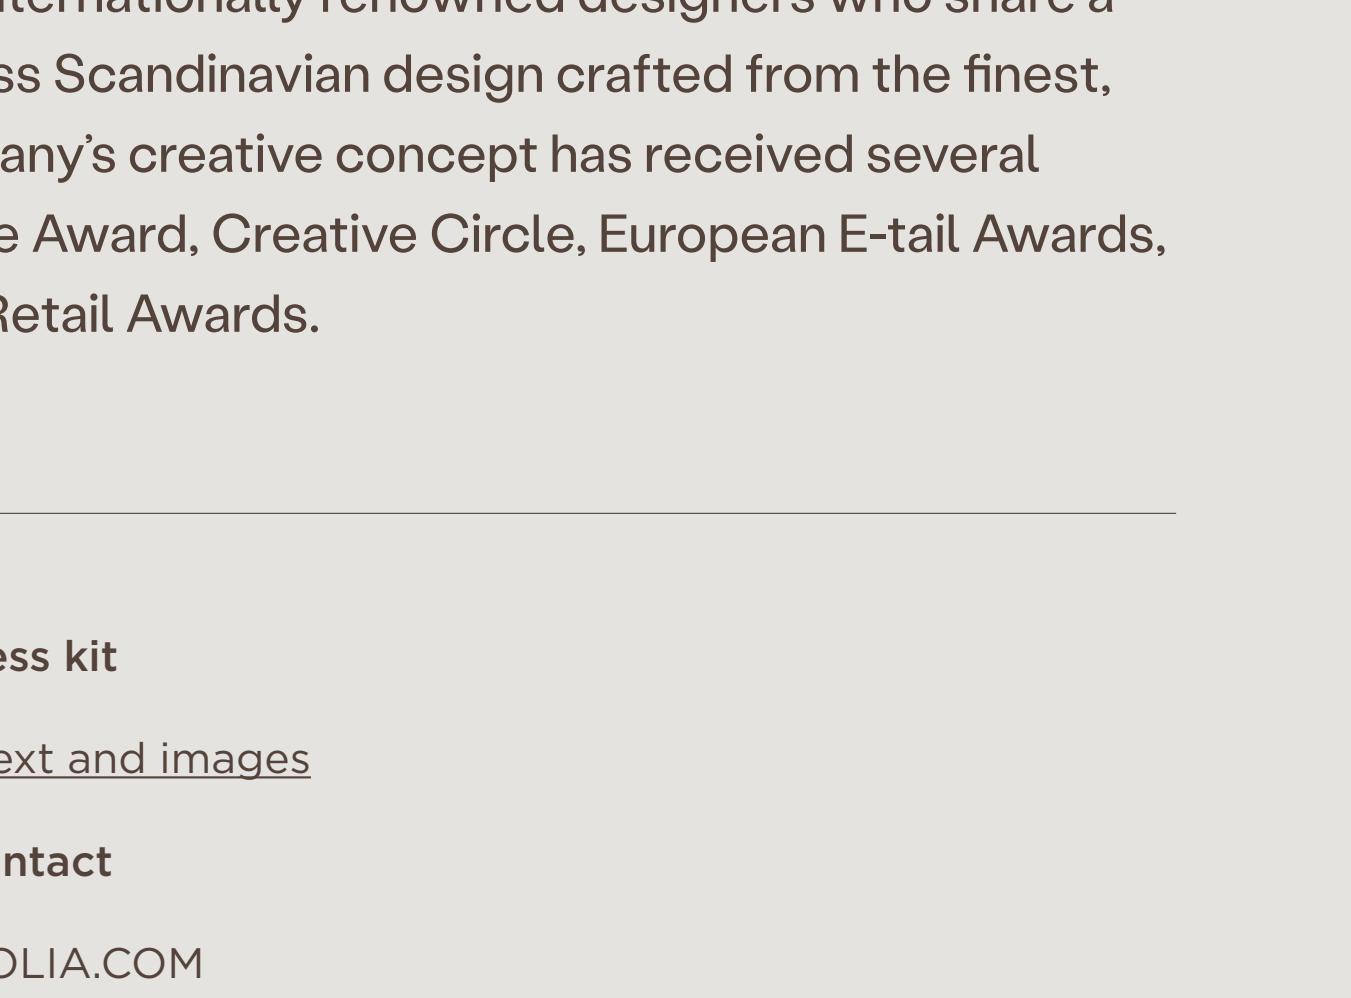

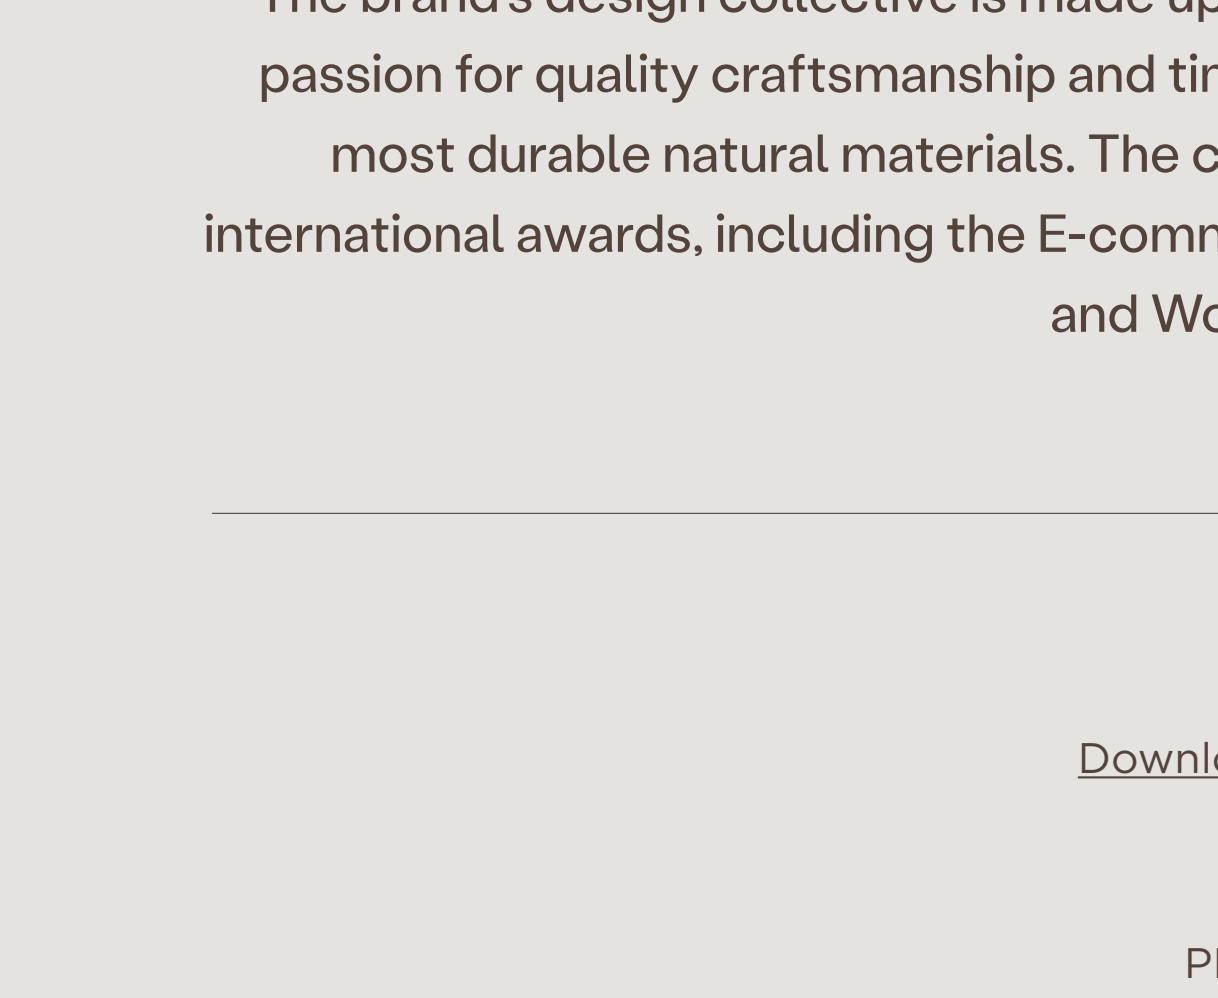

The modules can be combined endlessly, making it easy to create a setting tailored to individual needs, while the changeable outdoor cover simplifies maintenance and extends its life – lasting generations. The delicate piping that highlights its curves reflects precise craftsmanship, with each seam showcasing BOLIA's commitment to artisanal quality and long-lasting design.

PATIO OUTDOOR

Inspired by the calming rhythm of nature, the Patio series is designed to elegantly accompany the outdoor living through all seasons. Combining lounge and dining furniture, it creates a versatile setting for reading, shared meals, or quiet moments of reflection.

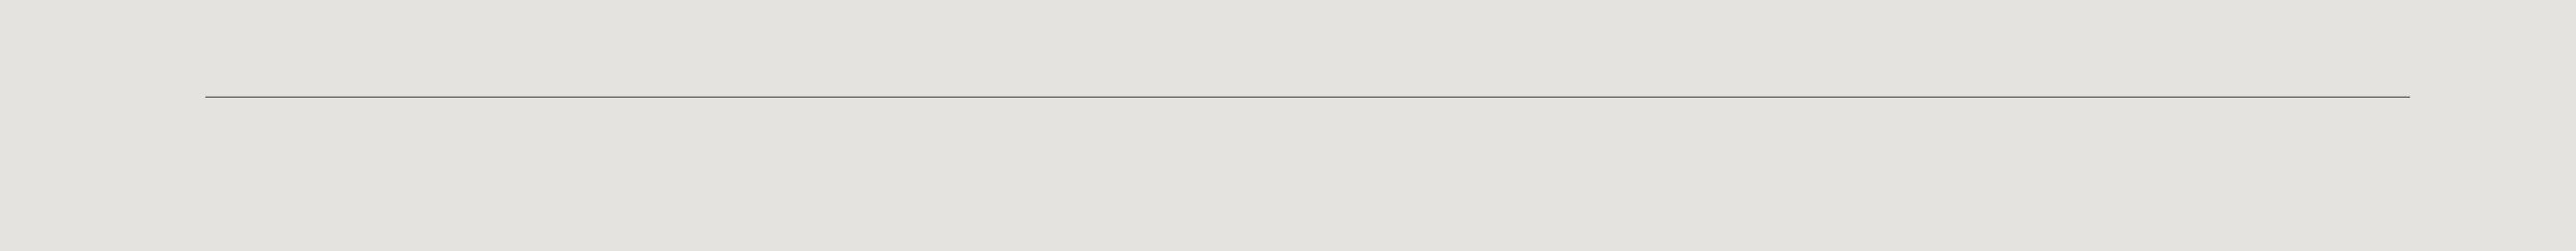

Customisable cushions in a wide selection of outdoor fabrics enhance comfort and invite extended relaxation. Crafted from solid, untreated FSC®-certified teak, the furniture develops a refined silver-grey patina over time, while regular oiling preserves its warm, golden-brown tone.

CREATIONS DESIGNED TO LAST

Backed by a 10-year warranty, BOLIA's outdoor sofas are made in Europe from carefully selected, durable materials. Their customisable elements allow the creation of unique, adaptable spaces that evolve with changing needs.

Removable, washable and changeable covers make maintenance effortless and extend the design's lifetime, while offering the freedom to refresh the expression over time. Once again, BOLIA demonstrates a commitment to long-lasting design – created to support everyday living and evolving desires, season after season.
