

A Scandinavian dining room with oak in the spotlight

Three new designs by Bolia

With its handcrafted details and sophisticated design, the Ronya table adds a new dimension to the dining experience. The Flor bench, crafted with the highest precision, provides a firm and stable seat. The comfortable Kala dining bench and its meticulous finishes offer timeless aesthetics and long-lasting quality to any dining room.

Ronya's simple, rounded lines give it a warm expression. Simple and sophisticated, this table can accommodate a large number of guests, whether you opt for the version with or without the extension. Its legs are made of solid FSC®-certified (FSC® C165134) oak. Its tabletop is available in oak veneer or FENIX® laminate, in a selection of colors. Designed by Studio Nooi for Bolia, Ronya is made in Europe by the finest craftsmen- & women.

Another Studio Nooi design for Bolia, Kala is a two- or three-seater dining bench inspired by mid-century Scandinavian design. Its rounded shapes carved in solid FSC®-certified (FSC® C165134) oak. The dining bench is mounted on a comfortable seat in leather, wool or rustic weave. Fine woodwork details on the legs and backrest made Kala a sculptural piece that will enhance any space, private or public. In the home, Kala is perfectly suited to the dining room, hallway or bedroom. It's a true contemporary classic, whose timeless aesthetics and quality craftsmanship will last for decades of use.

The Flor bench is inspired by both Scandinavian and Japanese design heritage. This blend of cultures, combined with designer Martin Lauritsen's touch, creates a precise piece of pure expression. FSC®-certified oak is upholstered in STANDARD 100 by OEKO-TEX® certified fabric or LEATHER STANDARD by OEKO-TEX® certified leather. The slightly angled legs provide a strong and stable seat. The bench is available in two sizes: 100 or 140 cm. Flor is perfect for residential environments, but also for restaurants, bars and hotels.
