

Design a welcoming guest room with Bolia

Bolia, the Scandinavian design brand, introduces a refined guest room collection designed to create an inviting and exclusive atmosphere for visiting friends and family. The latest additions encompass a range of meticulously crafted pieces, including a versatile sofa bed, cosy throw, plush cushions, and a warm bedspread, leaving no detail overlooked.

Central to this collection is the Gest sofa, a creation by Studio Nooi, blending sophistication with functionality. By day, it serves as an elegant sofa, and by night, it transforms into a spacious and luxurious double bed. The oak structure adds an elegant touch with its handcrafted details. With a selection of 150 upholstery options, the Gest sofa seamlessly adapts to various interiors. Complement it with a matching pouf, equipped with convenient storage for sheets and cushions.

German designer Meike Harde's Freda collection includes a throw, cushions, and bedspread featuring a delicate pattern created from subtly contrasting yarns. Crafted from soft, high-quality wool, these accessories are available in two soothing colors: Light green and light gray.

The Plover series, designed by Büro Famos, offers handmade throws, cushions, and bedspreads in pure wool. Their subtle pattern evokes the gentle traces left by beach waves, providing a luxurious, soft, and warm experience for guests. The series comes in two weight options and serene sand and creme colors, making it ideal for creating a serene, relaxing guest room.
