

Bolia presents the Visti dining bench and chair

The Visti dining bench and chair are two new variants of the armchair of the same name. A classic, timeless design with clear references to Bolia's Scandinavian design heritage. Handmade with a solid oak structure and covered with a soft seat and tactile upholstery of your choice. Designed by Italian Studio Nooi.

With its inviting expression, outstanding comfort, and timeless silhouette, the Visti series makes a beautiful addition to any space. Inspired by the classics of Scandinavian mid-century design but with a decidedly contemporary twist, Visti is designed to last for years – with a timeless character and durable construction.

Soft cushions float within the crafted frame, which is handmade in solid FSC®-certified (FSC® C165134) oak. The seats are designed for maximum comfort, in durable, molded foam. The flat armrests are ideal for placing a book or a cup of tea. Including the two new designs, Visti has become a complete design series that allows you to create cohesion in your interior from one room to another.

Every design in the Visti series is made in Europe, using the finest and most durable materials. Tailor-made in a wide variety of upholstery fabrics to fit any interior – and just like all designs in Bolia's collection, Visti comes with a 10-year warranty.
